Make a Joyful Noise: Using Song in Ritual & Spellcraft

2:30 pm

Phoenix Moonflame

Few things are more powerful than voices raised in song--unless it is voices raised in song for ritual and spells! This workshop will explain a little bit of the "science" behind singing, offer vocal exercises to use in order to train one's voice, and give examples of how (and why) to use singing in everyday magical situations, including the Lesser Banishing Ritual and invoking the Goddess, as well as an example of an entire ritual built from song.

Woodcraft and Witchcraft

4:00 pm

David Donohue

Come hear about the woodcraft movement in America that helped form and mold Wicca in the early 1900's throughout both World Wars that brings us to modern witchcraft as so many are familiar with it today. A bite of history, not often heard or talked about, that helped blend the connections between man, nature and spirit and helped give an alternative to various people looking for a nature based path.

Practical Spellcraft

4:00 pm

Karas Myr

A workshop that will cover the basics of spells and spellcrafting, including how to cast a spell and why spells can go wrong or 'fail'.
